

License Fee & CLE Waiver Request for Active Duty Military Personnel

W.S. 19-11-119 provides for professional license fee delay or waiver for uniformed service members, exemption from yearly renewal fees, and exemption from yearly CLE requirements. It reads:

19-11-119. Professional and occupational licenses; renewal fees waived; educational requirements.

The person who performed service in the uniformed services shall be exempted from the payment of any reinstatement or licensing renewal fee required by any profession or occupation governed by title 33 of the Wyoming statutes or by other law or ordinance applicable to any such person who performed service in the uniformed services during his period of service in the uniformed services except those licensing or renewal fees owed for the year in which he is released from service in the uniformed services or discharged from hospitalization incidental to his service in the uniformed services. The person who performed service in the uniformed services shall have ninety (90) days after his release from service in the uniformed services or hospitalization incidental to his service in the uniformed services to pay the licensing or renewal fees then owed. The person who performed service in the uniformed services shall be exempted from compliance with any continuing educational requirements applicable to such license during his period of service in the uniformed services except those required for the year in which he is released from service in the uniformed services or discharged from hospitalization incidental to his service in the uniformed services. The person who performed service in the uniformed services shall complete such requirements within one hundred eighty (180) days from his release from service in the uniformed services or discharge from hospitalization incidental to his service in the uniformed services. Any applicable license shall continue in force and effect provided that both the renewal fees and the educational requirements are completed within the periods provided herein.
