Appointment of Fifth Judicial District Commissioner

Vice President Jennifer Kirk shared that she knows the four lawyers who expressed interest in serving as the Fifth Judicial District Commissioner and she does not have any concerns about any of them. She provided an overview of each candidate and discussed information about where in the judicial district they each reside.

President Silva asked Executive Director Sharon Wilkinson how long the appointee will serve. Executive Director Wilkinson shared that the appointee will serve the remainder of Jennifer Kirk's term, which ends in September 2026. The appointee could then run for a full term.

After extensive discussion about each of the candidates, Commissioner Kevin Kessner made a motion to appoint Scott Kolpitcke to serve as the Fifth Judicial District Commissioner. Jason Petri seconded the motion. The motion carried.

President Silva adjourned the meeting at 12:22 p.m.
